PREFACE.

The Lydlinch Registers commence with a volume of sixty-seven parchment leaves, measuring nine-and-a-half inches by six inches, with a fly leaf at the beginning and the end, which is a fragment of a MS. mediæval treatise on moral questions. The book has lost its cover.

The first page is entitled "The Register Booke of Lydlinche, of all Weddinges, Christinings & Buryinges begynninge yn the yere of or Lord 1559," and it runs on continuously from the date of the first entry, 28th Dec., 1559, to 1st March, 1712, the baptisms, marriages and burials being entered together consecutively in order of date.

The last leaf contains no entries, except that on the verso are written the following memoranda.

1621 A° Dñi 1621. Nicholas Romayne at his death gaue to ye [vse] of the Parish Church of Lydlinch 2^{li}. It. to ye poore of ye Parish 6^{li}, ye interest of wch 6^{li} his will was should be distributed yearly to ye poore vpon Palme Sunday by ye minister wth some others of ye parish.

1624. A° Dñi 1624. Agnes Romayne deceased gaue to ye Parish of Lydlinch 16^{s} 8^{d} whereof her will was y^{t} 10^{s} should remaine to ye vse of ye poore and 6^{s} 8^{d} to ye Church.

1625. A° Dñi 1625. the Lady Williams of Plumber gaue 5^{li} and her sonne Mr. George Williams gaue 2^{li} all to remaine as a stocke to be employed for ye benefit of ye poore, as ye minister Overseers & others of ye Parish shall thinke fit.

1626. A° Dñi 1626. The Lady Williams deceased gaue by her last will 3li to remaine in stocke for ye poore, as ye former.

The long incumbency of Melchisedec Waltham extended from 1619, through the Great Rebellion, till his death in June, 1685, and the Register was well kept during all that period of 66 years.

The earliest pages are a transcript, and every page to 9th Oct., 1598, is signed by " Tho. Forward, W Jo. Claver, ⊥ Ry. Kydle."

Tho. Forward continues to sign, with other Churchwardens, till 5th April, 1605 ; then Ada' Wilson ꝑson 9th March, 1605-6 to March, 1611-2, and Melchisedec Waltham, Rector, 4th January, 1619-20, to 18th March, 1683-4. Then follow John Douch, Rector, 1685-1699, and John Combe, 1699, to the end of the book.

No. 2 is a folio volume of parchment leaves, bound in rough brown calf. The entries are written on twenty-five leaves, which are followed by a few blank leaves.

No. 3 consists of certain paper leaves, folio size, printed with forms for banns and marriages, roughly stitched together in a piece of parchment to serve as a cover. There are six leaves, containing fifty-five entries of marriage, and one cancelled entry which is repeated.

No. 4 is a thick folio book of paper leaves, bound in rough brown calf, with printed forms for marriages at one end, and banns at the other. It is entitled "The Register-Book for Marriages in all Parish Churches and Chapels . . . By T. Lowndes, No. 77, Fleet Street, London, 1776." Ten pages only are occupied with entries of marriages, which begin in 1777. Of Banns there are only three entries, 1777 to 1782.

A Supplement to How to Write the History of a Family,

By W. P. W. PHILLIMORE, M.A., B.C.L.

The First and Second Editions have been long since quite exhausted. Much additional information of practical value has been gathered together since the handbook was issued, and this has been put together in the form of a separate supplement, so that it may be available for the possessors of each edition. The supplement matches the original work.

It contains amongst other matter a Chapter for Beginners, Chapters on Scotch and Irish Genealogy and Records, which have been revised by Lyon King of Arms, Ulster King of Arms, and the Deputy Keeper of the Public Records, Ireland, and revised Lists of Probate Registries (England, Scotland, and Ireland) and Marriage Licenses, etc.

Fifty copies are printed on Dutch handmade paper. Price 5s. 6d.
